

Impaired Driving Education Course

Module 5: Summary

Sources

Case Study

CLEAR Alliance consulted with Marika Stone's family and friends (Greg Middeg, Tansy Brown, Carrie Morales-Carney) as well as the Deschutes County Sheriff's Office on this case.

Andrews, G. (2020, January 31). DA: Driver who killed cyclist was taking her dog's Xanax. The Bend Bulletin. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

Andrews, G. (2020, January 31). Lab results: Shantel Witt had multiple drugs in her system. The Bend Bulletin. Retrieved 2020.

Andrews, G. (2020, January 31). Witt to serve 12 years in death of cyclist Marika Stone. The Bend Bulletin. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

Central Oregon Daily News (2019, February 09). Cyclist's Father Speaks Out About Manslaughter Trial. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

KTVZ News Team (2018, January 03). Family, friends remember Bend dentist killed in crash. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

KTVZ News Team (2019, January 31). Emotional testimony on Day 2 of Witt manslaughter trial. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

KTVZ News Team (2019, February 09). Shantel Witt convicted of first-degree manslaughter. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

KTVZ News Team (2019, February 20). Shantel Witt gets 12-plus years for killing cyclist Marika Stone. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

Murdock, J. (2019, January 30). Oregon Woman Had Pet Dog's Xanax Medication in Her System When She Killed Cyclist With Car, Prosecutors Say. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

Then, A. (2019, January 29). Bend woman had her dog's Xanax in her blood when she crashed into, killed cyclist, state says. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

Tribune Media Wire (2019, February 01). Driver in fatal crash had dog's Xanax in system, records say. Retrieved August 04, 2020.

Photographs from Case Study

Lasala Images

KTVZ News

Deschutes County Sheriff's Office

Resources

National Help Line

- Call 1-800-662-HELP (1-800-662-4357)

MADD 24-Hour Victim Helpline

- Call 877.MADD.HELP

CLEAR Alliance

- 247 N Main Street, Suite B & C
Prineville, OR 97754
- Call 541-508-3062
- Email info@ClearAlliance.org
- Visit www.ClearAlliance.org